

Course Outline - Adult Conversation

Our conversation course is designed for adult students with advanced competency in German who feel confident in expressing themselves in German on a range of everyday topics. The course is adapted to the level of language competency and personal interests of the group and aims to improve students' conversation and grammar skills.

Students in this course will have ample opportunities to practise their speaking skills and increase their vocabulary. You will discuss a wide range of topics of interest based on material from a variety of sources, such as newspaper articles, literary texts and films. Topics may include:

- current affairs, contemporary social and political issues
- entertainment and mass media
- environmental issues
- generational changes
- traditions/customs and culture of German speaking countries
- Germany's role in Europe
- Germany's states and regional differences
- tourism and travel in German speaking countries

The course also aims to consolidate and extend the existing grammatical knowledge of the students and focuses on nuance, complex sentences, regional varieties and word construction.

Textbook: No textbook is required for this course.