

Course Outline - Adult Intermediate

Course aim: This course builds on your previous knowledge of the fundamentals of the German language. It will further develop your ability to interactively use the language in practical communicative situations.

Prior knowledge: This course requires knowledge of the fundamentals of the German language (corresponding to about 60 to 80 hours of prior study of German).

Topics	Outcomes	Grammar
Beruf und Arbeit (Professions and work)	Talking about professions/your job Talking about the past	Word formation Simple past tense of haben/sein Prepositions
In einer fremden Stadt (In a foreign city)	At the tourist office Booking a hotel room	Modal verbs The pronoun man Imperative
Gesundheit (Health)	Body and health Making an appointment at the doctor's	Possessive articles Modal verb sollen
In der Stadt unterwegs (Getting around in the city)	Asking for the way Travelling by public transport Understanding timetables/announcements	Local prepositions with the dative case
Der Kunde ist König (The customer is king)	Talking about time, dates, schedules Understanding phone messages Asking polite questions	Temporal prepositions
Neue Kleider (New clothes)	Buying clothes Expressing likes/dislikes	Demonstrative pronouns Questions with welcher, welche, welches Verbs with the dative case
Feste (Celebrations)	Learning how to say the date Understanding and writing invitations Learning about special occasions and holidays in Germany	Ordinal numbers Personal pronouns (accusative) The verb werden

Text Book: 'Schritte International 2', published by Hueber Verlag.